

FAIYUM - Privileges

THE 1ST EXPANSION

IDEA OF THE GAME

With the new privileges gain onetime and permanent advantages to do even more for the good of Faiyum.

GAME COMPOINENTS

- 42 cards, containing of:
  - 17 permanent effects
  - 25 onetime effects
- 15 wooden parts (5 each of wheat, grapes, stones)

You need the base game Faiyum to play with the privileges.

THE NEW PRIVILEGES

All cards of this expansion show odd numbers.

Privileges with permanent effects

These cards are cyan and have a “infinity” symbol. When you buy these privileges, place them face up in front of you. Thus they are always separate from the cards in your hand and your discard stack.

Use your permanent effects in your turns, from the moment you buy them until the end of the game.

You are never forced to use your permanent effects. Depending on the current situation of the game you can use the actions unaltered, if that offers you an advantage against the other players.

Most permanent effects change or add to the effects of your blue cards. When playing respective actions, you can use the permanent effects.

A few permanent effects offer actions, that you can take additionally to your chosen actions.

Check the glossary for details of all permanent effects.

Privileges with onetime effects

These cards are red and have a "1x" symbol. When you buy these privileges, place them face up in front of you as well. Thus they are always separate from the cards in your hand and your discard stack.

After buying them, use your onetime effects exactly once during one of your turns before or after your chosen action. Then, place the card back in the game box.

You can wait with it until you quit the game by taking a natural disaster. At that moment, all your unused onetime effects forfeit without substitution. Keep these cards together with all your other cards.
